

The Ogden Standard

FEARLESS, INDEPENDENT, PROGRESSIVE NEWSPAPER.

OGDEN CITY, UTAH, FRIDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 7, 1913.

THE WEATHER

UTAH—TODAY
FAIR, SATURDAY
FAIR, WARMER
IN WEST PORTION.

4 O'CLOCK P. M.
CITY EDITION

JOHN LIND IN MEXICO CITY

Unexpected Return Surprises
Mexicans and Americans Alike.

NO ONE IS NOTIFIED

Charge O'Shaughnessy Believed to Have Official Intimation From Huerta.

Mexico City, Nov. 7.—The final stages of the negotiations between Mexico and the United States are to be participated in personally at short range by John Lind. He arrived this morning from Vera Cruz.

The series of delays in provisional President Huerta's formal answer to the United States and the lack of definite action, which would indicate his attitude in face of the demands made, has been annoying to President Wilson's personal representative. It is known that negotiations had been conducted in an indirect manner, not following the ordinary diplomatic course, and Mr. Lind's sudden appearance in the federal capital is assumed to be due to his desire to bring things quickly to a clearly defined point.

Mexico City, Nov. 7.—John Lind, the personal representative of President Wilson, arrived here this morning from Vera Cruz. The United States embassy had not received any advice of his coming.

Mr. Lind proceeded to the American embassy where he will reside during his stay. He was accompanied by Captain William A. Burnside, the American military attaché, and Ensign John L. Hill, the battleship Louisiana, who was detailed by Rear Admiral Fletcher to act as Mr. Lind's aide.

There was much speculation here today as to the character of the discussion at the cabinet meeting held last night. All that is known definitely is that the relations between Mexico and the United States were discussed, but no definite action was taken.

Lind's Visit Unexpected.
Mr. Lind had not notified anybody that he was coming to the federal capital. The staff of the United States embassy learned the news from the morning papers. Only one of the clerks of the embassy went to the station to meet him.

The public and the Mexican officials likewise did not know of Mr. Lind's movements, and he came into the city in a manner contrasting greatly with his first arrival here.

As Mr. Lind stepped from the train he was met by several photographers, but he made no committal replies, thus maintaining the reputation for tactfulness which he earned on his previous trip.

Reticence in Washington.
Washington, D. C., Nov. 7.—John Lind's unexpected return to Mexico City from Vera Cruz is understood here to have been without direct orders from Washington, but in line with the general instructions under which he has been enjoying the greatest freedom. This latest development in the Mexican situation was surrounded by a great deal of reticence here. It was pointed out that he may be acting on a belief that important developments may be expected.

One official view is that Charge O'Shaughnessy either has received some intimation that Huerta is about to answer the representations made early in the week, or that O'Shaughnessy is desirous of advising with Lind on additional steps to be taken under his instructions.

Absent Cabinet Members Called.
The cabinet met today for the first time in several weeks. All the secretaries except Garrison and Wilson, and Attorney General McReynolds, attended. It was understood that at the instance of the president, the two members who had planned to be out of the city, cancelled their engagements to attend. The latest news dispatches telling of John Lind's return to Mexico City were taken to the meeting and Secretary Bryan carried a large envelope of state department dispatches.

Battleship Ordered to Vera Cruz.
Under orders from Admiral Fletcher, commanding the squadron in the Gulf of Mexico, the battleship New Hampshire is steaming to Vera Cruz from Tampico. With her arrival, eight American men of war will be assembled off Vera Cruz. Officials here gave no reason for sending the New Hampshire. Admiral Fletcher gave the order without instructions from the navy department. The gunboat, Annapolis, arrived today at Santa Rosalia, Lower California, where she is guarding, the request of the French foreign office a band of French colonists.

Huerta's Reply.
When the cabinet meeting broke up, the members were shown news dispatches from Mexico City, saying Huerta's formal reply would be a complete denial of the right of the United States to demand his retirement, but without exception none would comment. All admitted that the Mexican situation had been discussed but silence was the rule.

Huerta May Retire.
Berlin, Nov. 7.—The correspondent of the Frankfurt Gazette in Mexico City telegraphs today that General Huerta may perhaps retire from office as provisional president of the great powers support the action of the United States "as by so doing he will avoid the appearance of yielding to American pressure alone."

A correspondent mentions a plan of the provisional president to recall the Mexican minister from St. Petersburg to assume the provisional presidency.

The journey from Mexico City to Vera Cruz recently undertaken by the German minister, Paul von Hintze, was simply to reassure the members of the German colony there, according to the correspondent.

Berlin Dispatch Discussed.
The Berlin dispatch referring to a plan to recall Minister Covarrubias, representative of Mexico at St. Petersburg, that he might be appointed minister of foreign affairs and succeed to the provisional presidency in succession to Huerta, created more than a little interest among diplomats and other observers of the situation.

Covarrubias recently resigned but was asked to continue at his post until a successor was appointed. He is a relative of Juan Sanchez Azcona, private secretary to the late President Madero, who is now connected with the Carranza movement and is said by constitutionalist agents here to be one of the few men who would be acceptable to them, while regular elections were being held.

Berlin, Nov. 7.—At the German foreign office it was said today that a combination of the powers in support of the United States would be considered by Germany and other European powers in case the United States expressed a wish in that direction.

If, however, such a suggestion came from Provisional President Huerta, it would not be considered by Germany unless the United States desired it.

MEXICAN SITUATION TRAGIC.
Rome, Nov. 7.—Commenting on the Mexican situation today, the Giornale d'Italia says:

"The sky is dark over Mexico. The situation is becoming tragic. Intervention is unpopular and is not desired by the United States, but it is difficult to avoid, as Provisional President Huerta will not yield."

MARINES RECEIVE ORDERS.
Portsmouth, N. H., Nov. 7.—Orders were received from Washington today for 200 of the 300 marines stationed at the Portsmouth yard to prepare immediately for service in a southern climate.

The message from Washington was received at the yards last night and directed that the marines be ready to leave within 48 hours. Preparations were rushed and before noon today the men were awaiting an order to entrain. They are wearing khaki uniforms intended for warm weather use.

TROOPS RUSHED TO CHIHUAHUA.
El Paso, Texas, Nov. 7.—Two hundred troops of the federal garrison in Juarez were sent to Chihuahua this morning to assist in the defense of that city against Constitutionalists under Pancho Villa. The Juarez troops went on a hurriedly prepared troop train.

Juarez federal officials are today without definite information of a renewal of the fight at Chihuahua.

STARTED TO DRAG THE RIVER FOR BODY OF A MAN

Following the discovery of a drowned horse attached to a buggy in Ogden river, near Nineteenth street and Odell avenue, at 8:30 o'clock this morning, and the finding in the buggy of a hat, preparations were made by the police to drag the river for bodies, when George Taylor and Ray Folker, both residents of Mount Fort, gave out the information that they had driven into the river after losing the road in the district west of the Becker brewery.

According to their stories, they had rented the horse from the Noble livery on Twenty-fourth street at 8:30 o'clock last evening and were going to Marriott when they took the wrong road instead of the one that leads to the ford in that vicinity.

Before the men made known their safety, Detective George Wardlaw was using the telephone, calling up relatives of all who might have driven home from town by that road.

Max Brem, a master, employed at the brewery, was going to work from his residence, 1908 Odell avenue, when he observed the submerged outfit. He notified the police. Detective George Wardlaw and Patrolman Marlin responded in the patrol. All that could be seen of the rig was the top of the buggy and that was in the middle of the stream.

A call was made to the fire station and Able Standing and Jack Bradley, two firemen, went to the scene with block and tackle. Bradley mounted a horse and lassoed the buggy, while Standing, in an imitation of "September Morn," entered the icy water and secured the end of the rope. The buggy and dead horse were dragged to the bank of the river.

A description of the horse and buggy was made and the robes and water-soaked hat were taken to the police station for evidence.

Detective Wardlaw had finished his telephoning and was prepared to drag the river when the announcement came from the livery stable that the men had reported the accident.

NEW SUITS FOR THE PRISONERS

San Quentin, Cal., Nov. 7.—When "locking time" comes tonight at San Quentin penitentiary there will be worn by six striped suits. These will be used by the men in solitary confinement. The rest of the stripes will be smoldering in ashes in the prison yard.

SEC. REDFIELD MOVES FROM DINGY OFFICES INTO NEW BUILDING

From a suite of dingy offices in an old rented building, Secretary of Commerce W. C. Redfield and the employees of his great department have moved into this new office building, which has just been built for them. It is one of the plainest of buildings and represents a new departure from the old type of government building. It is the modern type of plain, practical office building, hundreds of which are seen along New York city business streets.

Secretary Redfield and new department of commerce building.

CRUISER GIVEN HURRY-UP ORDER

Warships Sails From Philadelphia Navy Yard to Join Fleet at Vera Cruz.

WILL ARRIVE MONDAY

Equipped With Powerful Wireless, Large Supply of Ammunition and Guns.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 7.—The scout cruiser Chester, prepared for any emergency, sailed from the Philadelphia navy yard at noon today for Vera Cruz. There was no ceremony in connection with her going.

The cruiser was expected to sail at 9 a. m., but a slight delay in the arrival of fresh meats detained her. When all was ready at 11:55 o'clock orders were given by Captain William A. Moffett to cut loose and as the ship began to move a crowd of several thousand persons sent up a cheer.

There was a hearty response from the members of the crew who lined the rails of the Chester.

It took some time for the cruiser to get straightened out in the Delaware, but as soon as her nose was pointed down stream, she put on half speed and was off. Further down the river, full speed was ordered and the Chester was soon lost in the haze.

Before sailing, Captain Moffett said he expected to reach his destination some time Monday night.

The scout cruiser which is equipped with the most powerful wireless apparatus on any ship in the American navy, is heavily loaded with provisions for three months, and a large supply of ammunition. There is also aboard machine and field guns.

Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—The scout cruiser Chester, under orders to hurry away to Vera Cruz, left the Philadelphia navy yard. The last of the supply of provisions, sufficient for three months, was put aboard in the forenoon. The slight delay in completing the loading was due to the non-arrival of a consignment of fresh meat.

Sailors and marines on the Chester were eager to get away. Captain William A. Moffett, who was transferred from the command of the battleship, Maine, to the Chester, is pleased with his crew. When the hurry orders to sail were received there was not much more than a skeleton crew on the Chester and the men were drafted from the other ships in the yard.

Official denials of reports that other ships at the yard are being prepared for immediate sea duty continue to be made. There is much repair work and overhauling being done on the ships in reserve and officers and these activities are mistaken for preparations to get them away.

OFFICERS SILENT AT CHARLESTON

Boston, Nov. 7.—It was said at the Charleston navy yard today that no orders concerning the movement of marines had been received there. The officers had no comment to make regarding the orders received for active service at Portsmouth.

In addition to the naval prison guard at Charleston there are 180 marines always ready for service. It was suggested that a plan which originated some time ago for a general roundup of all the marines on the Atlantic coast might be maturing. This plan, it was said, contemplated a practice assembly of the marines at Culebra, an island a short distance east of San Juan, Porto Rico, which

CRUISER GIVEN HURRY-UP ORDER

Warships Sails From Philadelphia Navy Yard to Join Fleet at Vera Cruz.

WILL ARRIVE MONDAY

Equipped With Powerful Wireless, Large Supply of Ammunition and Guns.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 7.—The scout cruiser Chester, prepared for any emergency, sailed from the Philadelphia navy yard at noon today for Vera Cruz. There was no ceremony in connection with her going.

The cruiser was expected to sail at 9 a. m., but a slight delay in the arrival of fresh meats detained her. When all was ready at 11:55 o'clock orders were given by Captain William A. Moffett to cut loose and as the ship began to move a crowd of several thousand persons sent up a cheer.

There was a hearty response from the members of the crew who lined the rails of the Chester.

It took some time for the cruiser to get straightened out in the Delaware, but as soon as her nose was pointed down stream, she put on half speed and was off. Further down the river, full speed was ordered and the Chester was soon lost in the haze.

Before sailing, Captain Moffett said he expected to reach his destination some time Monday night.

The scout cruiser which is equipped with the most powerful wireless apparatus on any ship in the American navy, is heavily loaded with provisions for three months, and a large supply of ammunition. There is also aboard machine and field guns.

Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—The scout cruiser Chester, under orders to hurry away to Vera Cruz, left the Philadelphia navy yard. The last of the supply of provisions, sufficient for three months, was put aboard in the forenoon. The slight delay in completing the loading was due to the non-arrival of a consignment of fresh meat.

Sailors and marines on the Chester were eager to get away. Captain William A. Moffett, who was transferred from the command of the battleship, Maine, to the Chester, is pleased with his crew. When the hurry orders to sail were received there was not much more than a skeleton crew on the Chester and the men were drafted from the other ships in the yard.

Official denials of reports that other ships at the yard are being prepared for immediate sea duty continue to be made. There is much repair work and overhauling being done on the ships in reserve and officers and these activities are mistaken for preparations to get them away.

OFFICERS SILENT AT CHARLESTON

Boston, Nov. 7.—It was said at the Charleston navy yard today that no orders concerning the movement of marines had been received there. The officers had no comment to make regarding the orders received for active service at Portsmouth.

In addition to the naval prison guard at Charleston there are 180 marines always ready for service. It was suggested that a plan which originated some time ago for a general roundup of all the marines on the Atlantic coast might be maturing. This plan, it was said, contemplated a practice assembly of the marines at Culebra, an island a short distance east of San Juan, Porto Rico, which

HUERTA REPLY TO BE NEGATIVE

Complete Denial of Right of United States to Demand Retirement.

TO ACCEDE ILLEGAL

General Declares Intention to Increase Mexican Army to 500,000 Men.

Mexico City, Nov. 7.—Provisional President Huerta's formal negative reply to the United States demands, which was discussed in detail at last night's cabinet meeting, will set forth that the United States has no right, legal or otherwise, to demand General Huerta's resignation. This statement was given out today from one of the departments of the Mexican government.

The reply, it is said, will also point out that Provisional President Huerta has no legal right to accede to the demands.

The informant says it was decided to incorporate in the reply a declaration that General Huerta intends to increase the Mexican army to 500,000 men.

CLOSING SESSION OF CONGREGATIONAL ASSOCIATION

The last session of the Congregational State Association of Utah was held this morning in the Second Congregational church at Five Points. Reports were read, officers and committees were selected and the closing business of the convention was attended to. During the afternoon the visiting delegates and local church members are enjoying a trip through Ogden canyon.

Reverend Frank G. Brainerd of Ogden was continued as moderator for the ensuing year, and Rev. P. A. Simpson of Salt Lake was elected registrar. Committees were appointed as follows:

Home missionary committee: Rev. E. I. Goshen, Dr. E. P. Mills and J. H. Page.

Educational committee: Rev. Phillip King, Rev. J. Chahon Smith and J. E. Scofield.

The delegates decided to hold the next convention in the First Congregational church, Salt Lake.

Rev. H. Melville Tenney's report on the national council meeting, recently held in Kansas City, was heard with interest today. Dr. Tenney will remain in Ogden over Sunday to preach in the First Congregational church Sunday morning, before returning to his home in San Francisco. The minister is an enthusiastic mountain climber and will go climbing with Rev. Brainerd tomorrow.

Following the excellent musical program of last evening, Rev. Miles B. Fisher gave an interesting address, in which he pointed out the steps that have been taken along the lines of introducing Bible study in the schools of the country. He declared that the adding of religious study to the curriculum of some schools gives the hope that all school systems will include religious training.

Richmond, Ind., Nov. 7.—The Richmond street car service was tied up this morning by a strike of motormen and conductors, but there was no disturbance in the early hours of the strike.

MARTIAL LAW NOT DECLARED

State Militia to Stay in Quarters While Negotiations Are On.

PUBLIC STATEMENT

Public Utilities Commission Mediator in Setting Indianapolis Street Car Strike.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 7.—Indianapolis will not be placed under martial law and the entire state militia that was brought here yesterday for strike duty will remain in its present quarters as long as there is a possibility of settling the street car strike. This announcement was made by Governor Ralston after he had conferred with both sides to the controversy early today.

"I am very hopeful of having the trouble settled by arbitration," said the governor, "and as long as there is a possibility of bringing this about I shall not place the troops in control of the city."

The governor yesterday and last night was trying to bring about a settlement of the strike through the public utilities commission, which is acting as a mediator. The recognition of the union seemed to be the chief contention.

Everything was quiet on the streets this morning. Robin I. Todd, president of the traction company, said no effort would be made to start the cars until the governor gave the word.

After the labor leaders today had refused a proposition to which the street car company had agreed as a basis for settling the strike, Governor Ralston drew up a new statement and submitted it to the company and the labor leaders. The new statement differs from yesterday's plan for a settlement in that it does not demand the surrender of the union charter, and the withdrawal of outside labor leaders from the state. Governor Ralston is hopeful of the success of his plan in ending the strike, which began a week ago tonight.

The proposition in brief, provides for the outside labor leaders to cease their activities among the employees of the company; that all employees who have not engaged in acts of violence will return to their old positions with the company; that the operation of the system be resumed at once; that, after thirty days, the company will consider any grievance from its employees, and that, if no final agreement can be made, it shall be referred to the public service commission, whose decision will be final.

LOCAL BRIEFS

Negro Disappears.—Taking advantage of the liberty given him, E. L. Boyd, a negro serving a 60-day sentence in the city jail, left his employment at the Carnegie library yesterday afternoon and has not returned. He was "fanned" out to the library janitor to assist in the duties. Boyd is the man who interfered with the quiet between Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson ten days ago. Boyd was struck on the head with a bucket while Anderson claimed he was cuffed by Boyd.

Old papers for sale at the Standard Office, 25c per hundred.

WANTED.—Green Fruit Trees in four foot lengths. $5.00 per cord. Ogden Packing & Provision Co. B & G's the Butcher that satisfies the inner man.

Born.—To the wife of John Von Woerkom, 3246 Pacific avenue, a boy, November 6.

Dance at Third Ward tonight. Crawford's orchestra. Refreshments.

Given Presents.—Foreman S. Olsen was presented with a handsome traveling bag, a diamond watch fob and chain and a valuable gold watch by the employees in the Southern Pacific shops today. The presentations were made as a farewell offering for Mr. Olsen is to go to Pocatello to be in charge of the shops there.

NEW LINEUP ON CURRENCY BILL

Washington, D. C., Nov. 7.—An entirely new lineup in the senate banking committee with a majority behind the administration appeared today when, by a vote of seven to five, the committee reconsidered its action, reducing the number of regional reserve banks to four.

Senators Reed and O'Gorman, the Democrats, who had been voting against the administration proposals, cast their votes with the other Democrats. Senator Hitchcock, Democrat, held out, but Senator Crawford, Republican, joined the administration forces and the question was reopened. Whether the new lineup would hold through the vote on the resolution for seven regional banks was left in question.

The administration won another point when the committee voted to retain on the federal reserve board as an ex-officio member, the secretary of the treasury.

All of the amendments so far adopted by the committee, many of which are opposed by the administration, have been tentative only, and it was believed that if today's lineup held, all those amendments could be reconsidered and made more acceptable to President Wilson.

GENERAL DIAZ UNDER ARREST

Accused of Shooting Young Mexican in Encounter in Havana Last Night.

LOOKS DOWNHEARTED

Claims He Was Attacked By Unidentified Man—Don't Know Who Fired Shot.

Havana, Cuba, Nov. 7.—General Felix Diaz was arrested here today and accused of shooting Pedro Guerrero, the young Mexican wounded by a bullet during last night's altercation, in the course of which Diaz was slightly wounded.

General Diaz is said to have handed the revolver to one of his companions after he had shot and seriously wounded Guerrero. Guerrero stabbed Diaz with a knife. Guerrero's condition is critical.

General Diaz looked downhearted when interviewed in prison today. He showed two slight stab wounds in his neck, just behind the ear, as the result of his encounter last night. He said he suffered no pain.

The court will not decide until next week as to whether he shall be placed on trial or released.

Mrs. Diaz Shocked.

Paris, Nov. 7.—Mme. Porfirio Diaz learned today of the attack on General Felix Diaz. She said General Porfirio Diaz would be greatly shocked by the occurrence and she would break the news to him as gently as possible.

Madame Diaz declared that her husband would not say anything for publication as he was determined to follow resolutely the rule he had laid down for himself not to give any interviews.

FEDERAL INSPECTOR MIGRATORY BIRDS IS IN OGDEN

D. C. Nowlin, government inspector of migratory birds, in charge of the mountain states district, embracing Utah, Wyoming, and eastern Idaho, is in Ogden in connection with his duties. Mr. Nowlin said this morning:

"Federal officials charged with the enforcement of the new migratory bird law, effective since October 1, are anxious to give wide publicity to the land and water regulation thereunder for it is believed that education is the best means of securing public co-operation in law enforcement."

"A great majority of intelligent people, especially the sportsman farmer, orchardist and gardener—recognize the economic value of birds."

"Game birds afford beautiful sport and wholesome food and most of them are well known and duly appreciated; but too many people fail or refuse to give due credit to the 'little fellows'—the larks, robins, orioles, swallows and many other tiny but tireless workers."

"Farmers and fruit growers cannot successfully contend with insects and noxious plants without the assistance of birds, and they should not forget that these feathered friends ask for no reward except immunity from persecution."

"It is to be hoped that our schools will give 'bird lore' prominence enough to impress pupils with the fact that the wanton killing of birds is both legally and morally wrong."

"Migratory birds are those which do not remain within the borders of any one state during the entire year—birds that go north and south with change of seasons—and all such birds are now under federal protection."

"There will be close and friendly co-operation between state and federal officials in the effort to protect birds. A violation of this new law means a maximum penalty of a $100 fine, or 90 days imprisonment or both."

SOCIETY

ELABORATE PARTY AT EAGLES' HALL.

Last evening in the Eagles' hall an exquisitely arranged and largely attended dancing party was given by the young Misses Dorothy and Dorothy Thomas and Trude and Florence Turner, when about 130 of their friends were most pleasantly entertained.

The young guests arrived in mask and costumes. Rare impersonations were seen throughout the merry party which was unmarked after the grand ball at 8 o'clock.

In one end of the hall punch and wafers were served while in the dining room dainty refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake were served. A profusion of white chrysanthemums were effectively arranged throughout and added beauty to the scene.

The following acted as patrons and patronesses to the affair: Messrs. and Mesdames J. D. Watson, Hugh C. Wood, J. E. Thomas, Harry Todd, W. A. Turner and Miss Gladys Rich.

The party was quite the most elaborate and nicely planned children's affair of the season and the young hostesses were showered with compliments.